Advestra strengthens its ranks with the incorporation of Andreas Hinsen as a new partner of the firm. Hinsen's practice focuses on domestic and cross-border M&A transactions, corporate governance, restructurings as well as general corporate and stock exchange laws.

He has broad experience in private equity and venture capital and has advised on a wide range of corporate transactions. He also frequently advises on general corporate law matters and real estate transactions.

Prior to joining Advestra, Andreas was partner at the Loyens & Loeff and associate at Lenz & Staehelin. His arrival further enhances and complements Advestra's corporate/m&a practice.
