

BÄR & KARRER ADVISED SET ON THE CHF 55 MILLION CAPITAL RAISE

Posted on 6 April 2020

Category: Deal & transactions

Tags: Bär & Karrer, Christoph Neeracher, Christoph Suter, Daniel Küpfer, Ex-Featured, Frederic Mancosu, Isabelle Stalder, Mani Reinert, Markus Wang, Philippe Seiler, Sandro Orefice, Screening Eagle Technologies, Thomas Stoltz

Screening Eagle Technologies (Set), a cloud-based technology platform connecting sensors, software, and data for intelligent inspection of assets and infrastructure, has announced to have raised CHF 55 million in its first institutional round of equity funding. The funding will accelerate Screening Eagle's growth trajectory with new product development, talent acquisition, and m&a.

Bär & Karrer acted as legal advisor to Screening Eagle Technologies and its majority shareholder in this transaction. The team included Christoph Neeracher (pictured) Philippe Seiler, Daniel Küpfer, Isabelle Stalder and Sandro Orefice (all m&a), Markus Wang (ip/it), Mani Reinert (competition law), Thomas Stoltz and Frédéric Mancosu (both notarial services) as well as Christoph Suter (tax).