

BÄR & KARRER ADVISES MIGROS ON THE SALE OF GLOBUS

Posted on 5 February 2020

Category: Deal & transactions

Tags: Bär & Karrer, Central Group, Charles Gschwind, Christoph Neeracher, Christoph Suter, Corrado Rampini, Isabelle Stalder, Magazine zum Globus, Mani Reinert, Markus Wang, Migros-Genossenschafts-Bund, Ralph Malacrida, Raphael Annasohn, Raphael Egger, Sandro Orefice, Signa, Thomas Rhode, Yves Suter

Migros-Genossenschafts-Bund (Mgb) sold Magazine zum Globus along with eight associated real estate properties to a joint venture of Signa and Central Group. Signa and Central already jointly own Germany's KaDeWe Group. Central Group currently owns Italy's Rinascente and Denmark's Illum.

Bär & Karrer acted as legal advisor to MGB in this transaction. The team included Christoph Neeracher, Thomas Rhode (pictured), Raphael Annasohn, Raphael Egger, Yves Suter, Isabelle Stalder and Sandro Orefice (all m&a), Corrado Rampini and Charles Gschwind (both real estate), Markus Wang (ip/it), Christoph Suter (tax), Mani Reinert (competition) as well as Ralph Malacrida.