

BÄR & KARRER ADVISES QSR INTERNATIONAL ON THE ACQUISITION OF SWISS ACADEMIC SOFTWARE

Posted on 22 February 2021

Category: Deal & transactions

Tags: Ex-Featured, Jonas Bornhauser, Kerim Tbaishat, Laura Rubeli, Laura Widmer, Li Wei Dutler, Lukas Bründler, Raphael Annasohn, Rehana Harasgama, Susanne Schreiber, Tobias Rebmann

QSR International LLC, a US based developer of research & educational software and a portfolio company of Rubicon Technology Partners, has acquired all shares in Swiss Academic Software GmbH, developer of the leading literature and knowledge management software Citavi.

The team

Bär & Karrer acted as legal advisor to Rubicon Technology Partners in this transaction. The team included Christoph Neeracher (pictured), Raphael Annasohn, Lukas Bründler and Li Wei Dutler (all M&A), Susanne Schreiber and Kerim Tbaishat (both Tax), Laura Widmer and Laura Rubeli (both Employment), Jonas Bornhauser and Tobias Rebmann (both IP/IT) as well as Rehana Harasgama (Data Protection).