Swiss software company Netcetera has acquired routeRANK, the Lausanne-based specialist for reliable and environmentally friendly door-to-door route planning.

With this strategic transaction, the two companies will provide IT solutions for multimodal mobility worldwide. The newly acquired expert know-how and technological expertise will enable Netcetera to offer comprehensive services along the digital passenger journey: efficient and ecological route planning, passenger information, and ticketing. Founded in 1996, Netcetera is a holding company with around 800 employees and is headquartered in Zurich, Switzerland, with locations across Europe, Asia, and the Middle East.

BianchiSchwald has advised routeRANK, an EPFL Startup, in this transaction as lead counsel with a team consisting of Thomas Schmid (partner, corporate, pictured), associate Stipe Jozic and managing associate Elodie Le Guen.
