

CAPVIS ACQUIRED A MAJORITY STAKE IN BSI BUSINESS SYSTEMS INTEGRATION: THE ADVISOR

Posted on 21 August 2020

Category: Deal & transactions

Tags: Cécile Gurtner, Christoph Neeracher, Ex-Featured, Jonas Bornhauser, Li Wei Dutler, Mani Reinert, Martin Leu, Philippe Seiler, Ralph Malacrida, Raphael Egger, Susanne Schreiber, Thomas Stoltz

Swiss investment firm Capvis has agreed to acquire a majority stake in BSI Business Systems Integration, a customer relationship management (CRM) software solution provider that operates primarily in Switzerland, Germany and Austria.

Bär & Karrer acts as legal advisor to Capvis in this transaction. The team includes Christoph Neeracher (pictured), Philippe Seiler, Raphael Egger and Li Wei Dutler (all M&A), Susanne Schreiber and Martin Leu (both Tax/Structuring), Jonas Bornhauser (IP/IT), Ralph Malacrida (Financing), Mani Reinert (Competition Law) as well as Thomas Stoltz and Cécile Gurtner (both Corporate/Notary).

Niederer Kraft Frey advised the shareholders of BSI Business Systems Integration AG with a team led by Corporate/M&A partner Manuel Werder, working with associates Binderiya Gan-Ayush, Corinne Russi (both Corporate/M&A), partner Daniela Schmucki and associate Morgan Boëffard (both Tax).