

CMS ADVISED UNIPROD IN ACQUIRING TECHEX HANDELS' DRIVE AND PROCESS TECHNOLOGY UNIT

Posted on 13 January 2021

Category: Deal & transactions

Tags: Alexandra Stocker, Cms, Elena Gazke, Ex-Featured, Katja Bertsche, Sarah Keller, Simone Brauchbar Birkhäuser, Stephan Werlen

Valeta, headquartered in Zug, a portfolio company of Frankfurt-based financial investor Halder, acquires through its subsidiary Uniprod by way of an asset deal the drive and process technology unit of Techex Handels.

Techex Handels supplies more than 400 customers with more than 10,000 different products and assembly groups in pneumatics and process technology. The product portfolio includes valves, drives, fittings and hoses as well as control blocks. The Valeta Group employs more than 200 employees in Germany, Switzerland and Lithuania. Approximately 3,000 customers are supplied from various customer industries, such as mechanical and plant engineering, aerospace and automation industry as well as medical technology.

The team

A team from CMS Switzerland, led by partner Stephan Werlen (pictured), advised Uniprod and the team of Halder (Philipp Scheier, Jatinder Pal Singh) on all legal matters of the transaction. The team included Alexandra Stocker (Associate, Corporate / M&A), Sarah Keller (Associate, Employment), Simone Brauchbar Birkhäuser (Counsel, IP / IT), Elena Gazke (Paralegal, IP / IT), Katja Bertsche (Associate, Real Estate).