CONFORAMA SUISSE ACQUIRER DAN MAMANE ADVISED BY SCHELLENBERG WITTMER

Posted on 5 August 2020

Category: Deal & transactions

Tags: Amalie Wijesundera, Amanda Burnand Sulmoni, Anita Schläpfer, Céline Schmid, Christoph Vonlanthen, David Mamane, Edmond Kohler, Ex-Featured, Fabio Hurni, Grégoire Wuest, Jean-Frédéric Maraia, Josef Caleff, Julien Witzig, Marcel Jakob, Michael Nordin, oland Mathys, Oliver Triebold, Philipp Groz, Roland Wild, Samuel Klaus, Yannick Caballero Cuevas

Dan Mamane, a Swiss entrepreneur, announced the acquisition of Conforama Suisse, a Swiss home appliances, furniture, and electronics retailer. It is headquartered in Bussigny, canton of Vaud, Switzerland and operates 22 stores in Switzerland, employing 1,200 people. Mamane is a serial entrepreneur, with extensive knowledge of the Swiss home furnishings market. Financial terms of the deal were not disclosed.

The advisors

Schellenberg Wittmer acted as legal advisor to a group of Swiss private investors in this transaction, including Dan Mamane according to Mergermarket. Vulcain was the exclusive financial adviser to Dan Mamane and KPMG as accountant to the entrepreneur.

The team at Schellenberg Wittmer advising on the carve-out transaction was led jointly by Christoph Vonlanthen (pictured left) and Oliver Triebold (pictured right) and included Marcel Jakob and Yannick Caballero Cuevas (M&A), Anita Schläpfer, Grégoire Wuest, Edmond Kohler and Fabio Hurni (Banking and Finance), Roland Mathys, Samuel Klaus and Amalie Wijesundera (ICT), David Mamane (Antitrust), Philipp Groz (IP), Michael Nordin, Jean-Frédéric Maraia, Roland Wild and Julien Witzig (Tax), as well as Josef Caleff, Amanda Burnand Sulmoni and Céline Schmid (Real Estate).