

DSP GROUP AGREED TO ACQUIRE SOUNDCHIP: THE ADVISORS

Posted on 22 June 2020

Category: Deal & transactions

Tags: Chaudet Bovay Wyler Mustaki & Partners, News

DSP Group has agreed to acquire SoundChip, a Switzerland-based company engaged in producing semiconductors for use in microphones and headphones and providing system-level audio solutions, for a total consideration of USD 20.5m.

The acquisition will help DSP Group in increasing its market share and also enter into new markets and is in line with DSP's strategy to provide best quality products for voice and communications devices. The transaction is expected to complete by 01 July 2020 and is subject to customary closing conditions.

The advisors

Chaudet Bovay Wyler Mustaki & Partners advised SoundChip. Partner Jerome Guex (tax - pictured) worked in this transaction.

Kelley Drye & Warren acted as legal advisor to SoundChip. Partner Merrill Stone (corporate) worked in this transaction.

Sharon Raviv & Co acted as legal advisor to DSP Group.