Eversheds Sutherland continues to grow its presence in Switzerland and opens a new office in Zug. The office is run by Michael Mosimann (pictured), attorney at law and notary public. His areas of expertise include: Private equity, venture capital and M&A, Crypto assets and regulation, General corporate (in particular Startups), Commercial and IT, Notarial services. The office in Zug, one of the most innovative regions of the country, is the fourth for Eversheds Sutherland in the area.

Peter Haas, Managing Partner of Eversheds Sutherland Switzerland and Deputy Chairman of Eversheds Sutherland (Europe) said: "The region of Zug is known for its very business friendly ecosystem and authorities, a favorable tax environment and the location of some of the most exclusive businesses in Switzerland. We believe in the potential of many innovative companies in the Crypto Valley and are excited to link them to other jurisdictions within our global network."
