

GIESECKE+DEVRIENT INVESTS IN NETCETERA: THE ADVISOR

Posted on 29 September 2020

Category: Deal & transactions

Tags: Boris Wenger, Ex-Featured, Johanna Moesch, Johannes Weichbrodt, Kilian Perroulaz, Muriel Binder, Pascal Richard, Patricia Reichmuth, Ramon Tissafi, Teresa Gerhold

The global security technology group Giesecke+Devrient (G+D) invests in Netcetera Group. The Swiss software company is one of the main providers for secure digital payments. With this partnership, the two internationally operating companies aim to use synergies in their portfolio, further strengthen their innovative power and tap international growth potential.

The team

Baker McKenzie advised G+D in all legal, regulatory and competition law aspects of the transaction. The team was led by Kilian Perroulaz (M&A and Transaction Tax - pictured left) and Pascal Richard (M&A - pictured right), and included Boris Wenger (Competition Law, Zurich), Johannes Weichbrodt, Teresa Gerhold (Competition Law, Düsseldorf), Ramon Tissafi and Patricia Reichmuth (both M&A), Johanna Moesch, Muriel Binder and Markus Winkler (all IP/Tech) as well as Philippe Monnier (Employment).