Swiss watchmaker Greubel Forsey Holding has completed the acquisition of shares held by a minority shareholder in Greubel Forsey and GFPI.

Greubel Forsey Holding now holds the entire share capital of Greubel Forsey and GFPI. This independence will enable the brand to define the next stages of development and maturity in complete freedom.
