

GROUPE MUTUEL ACQUIRES MAJORITY STAKE IN NEOSANA: THE ADVISOR

Posted on 11 September 2020

Category: Deal & transactions

Tags: Antonio Carbonara, Christine Schweikard, Daniel Dedeyan, Dimitrios Berger, Ex-Featured, Irène Suter-Sieber, Janine Corti, Johannes Stamm, Judith Rothen, Lara Alec, Luc Defferrard, Nathalie Möri, Rafael Zemp

Groupe Mutuel takes over a majority stake in the insurance consultant Neosana, based in Zurich. This is intended to further strengthen Groupe Mutuel's market presence in German-speaking Switzerland. Neosana employs over 100 people and offers its customers across Switzerland comprehensive advisory services for all types of insurance. The company should remain an independent company and continue to work with the most important Swiss insurers.

The advisors

Walder Wyss advised Groupe Mutuel on this transaction. The team was led by Luc Defferrard (Partner, Corporate / M&A - pictured) and Rafael Zemp (Managing Associate, Corporate / M&A) and further comprised Dimitrios Berger (Associate, Corporate / M&A), Lara Alec (Associate, Corporate / M&A), Daniel Dedeyan (Counsel, Banking & Finance), Gion Giger (Managing Associate, Competition), Janine Corti (Counsel, Tax), Irène Suter-Sieber (Partner, Employment), Nathalie Möri (Associate, Employment), Christine Schweikard (Associate, IP / IT), Antonio Carbonara (Partner, Litigation & Arbitration), Johannes Stamm (Trainee Lawyer) and Judith Rothen (Trainee Lawyer).