

HOMBURGER ADVISED CERAMTEC ON THE ACQUISITION OF DENTALPOINT

Posted on 14 January 2021

Category: Deal & transactions

Tags: Ananda Lee, Andri Hess, Benjamin Camavdic, Carlo Sulser, Daniel Daeniker, Ex-Featured, Laetitia Fracheboud, Nicole Hilpert, Philippe Baumann, Richard Stäuber, Valentin Fluor, Vincent Croisier

On January 4, 2021, CeramTec, a leading international manufacturer of technical ceramics, announced its acquisition of all shares in Dentalpoint, a Swiss specialist for ceramic dental implants.

Homburger advised CeramTec on the transaction. The team was led by senior partner Daniel Daeniker (pictured) and included lead associate Carlo Sulser (both Corporate / M&A), partners Andri Hess (IP / IT) and Richard Stäuber (Competition), associates Laetitia Fracheboud (Tax), Valentin Fluor, Philippe Baumann (both IP / IT), and Nicole Hilpert (Employment and Executive Compensation), and junior associates Vincent Croisier, Ananda Lee, and Benjamin Camavdic (all Corporate / M&A).