Homburger acted as counsel to Credit Suisse (Switzerland) and Investec Bank plc as mandated lead arrangers in connection with the financing of the acquisition of the majority of ASSEPRO Group by the European Private-Equity company EMZ Partners. ASSEPRO Group is a leading independent insurance broker company with a focus on small and medium-sized enterprises (SMEs) in Switzerland covering a broad value chain including brokerage, insurance advisory, risk management, pension schemes, financial/pension planning and employee benefits.

The team

Homburger advised Credit Suisse (Switzerland) Ltd. and Investec Bank plc as mandated lead arrangers as well as the original lenders with regard to all legal aspects of the financing transaction. The team was led by partner Jürg Frick (Financing and Investment Products - pictured) and included associates David Borer, Stefan Bindschedler and Daniel Junginger (all Financing and Investment Products) as well as partner Stefan Oesterhelt (Tax).
