

HOMBURGER ADVISED UBS ON ITS ISSUANCE OF NOTES UNDER ITS EURO NOTE PROGRAMME

Posted on 15 May 2020

Category: Banking & Finance

Tags: Benedikt Maurenbrecher, Ex-Featured, Homburger, Lee Saladino, Stefan Oesterhelt, Ubs

On May 13, 2020, UBS, acting through its London branch, completed its issuance of CHF 340,000,000 in aggregate principal amount of 0.170 per cent. notes due May 2022 under its Euro Note Programme. The Notes have been provisionally admitted to trading, and application has been made for admission to trading and listing of the Notes, on the SIX Swiss Exchange. The Notes are Swiss law-governed.

The team

Homburger advised UBS with respect to all transactional aspects of Swiss law. The team included partners Benedikt Maurenbrecher (banking and finance | capital markets - pictured) and Stefan Oesterhelt (Tax), as well as counsel Lee Saladino (banking and finance/ capital markets).