

HOMBURGER ADVISED THERMO FISHER IN ITS STRATEGIC PARTNERSHIP WITH CSL

Posted on 16 June 2020

Category: Deal & transactions

Tags: Andrea Grimm, Andrea Zocchi, Ex-Featured, Homburger, Luca Dal Molin, Mirko Stiefel

On May 27, 2020, Thermo Fisher Scientific and CSL entered into a strategic long term partnership. Thermo Fisher will support CSL's product portfolio by leveraging its pharma services network, including drug product development, biologics manufacturing, sterile fill-finish, packaging and clinical trials logistics. Through a long-term lease agreement with CSL, Thermo Fisher will operate a new state-of-the-art biologics manufacturing facility in Lengnau, Switzerland, when construction is completed in mid-2021.

The teams

Homburger advised Thermo Fisher Scientific in all legal matters on its partnership with CSL. The team included partners Daniel Daeniker (corporate and m&a - pictured), Luca Dal Molin (ip/it), of counsel Andrea Grimm (real estate), associate Mirko Stiefel (corporate and m&a) and Andrea Zocchi (ip/it).

As previously reported by Legalcommunity.ch, Baker McKenzie has advised CSL Limited in all legal matters on its partnership with Thermo Fisher Scientific. The Zurich team consisted of partners Alexander Wyss (pictured left), Peter Reinert (pictured centre), Boris Wenger (picture right), associates Johanna Moesch, Michael Zeller, Julia Schieber and Roger Thomi.