Joël Doswald joins Wenger Vieli as new senior associate at the Tax department. As Tax advisor, Doswald counsels family-owned businesses along with the individuals involved in national as well as international tax issues. Thanks to his previous work in international tax law with a focus on US companies with a presence in Switzerland, he has a thorough understanding of cross-border issues and restructuring, both of which are essential when advising private individuals and family businesses.

Prior to this he has worked as Tax Advisor at PricewaterhouseCoopers.
