Trianon, a service provider for business process outsourcing in the HR and pension plans, integrates Inceo, which specialises in absence and claims management and in the administration of collective health insurance plans.

With the acquisition of Inceo, Trianon, which belongs to the Mobilier Group, is expanding its services in the area of absence and claims management. The company aims to offer its clients a broader range of services and at the same time strengthen its market presence.
