Kellerhals Carrard has reorganised and strengthened its Life Sciences team. It is now fully integrated into the value chain of its clients in the pharmaceutical, medical technology, health and nutrition sectors and is led by the three co-heads Nicolas Mosimann (transactions, pictured left), Jörg von Manger-Koenig (business affairs, 30 years of industry experience, pictured centre) and Claudio Helmle (regulation, pictured right). The firm's Life Sciences team comprises 25 active members.

Kellerhals Carrard has also announced the appointment of Susanna Baumgartner Morin as Counsel with immediate effect. Baumgartner Morin is an accomplished lawyer and holds a master of medicine, which gives her a unique perspective and expertise that is invaluable to our life sciences clients.
