

LENZ & STAEHELIN WITH FÉLIX BADEL & CIE IN A COMPETITION COMMISSION INVESTIGATION

Posted on 28 May 2021

Categories: Competition & Antitrust, Energy

Tags: Benoît Merkt, Ex-Featured, Johana Cau, Lenz & Staehelin, Sevan Antreasyan

Lenz & Staehelin represented Félix Badel & Cie, the Electrical installation company, in the Competition Commission investigation started in 2018 against 8 electricity companies in and around Geneva in relation to public and private tenders. Félix Badel & Cie successfully concluded a settlement with the Competition Commission Secretariat which was approved by the Competition Commission on 27 May 2021.

Lenz & Staehelin team was led by partner Benoît Merkt (pictured) and included Sevan Antreasyan and Johana Cau (all competition).

Since its founding in 1903 by Félix Badel, Félix Badel & Cie has been one of the main operators in French-speaking Switzerland, Badel & Cie brings together more than 150 employees and covers all the specialties of its field of activity.