As of October 2020, Markus Aeschbacher and Marco Colombini have joined Bratschi as new partners. The former joins Bratschi's construction and real estate law practice, the latter strengthens the Italian Practice Team.

Aeschbacher has long-standing consultancy and litigation experience in the field of construction and real estate law, with a focus on real estate transactions, construction and planning contracts, turnkey and general contractor agreements, commercial tenancy law as well as plant engineering and construction. His national and international clients include property developers, investors, real estate companies and major construction companies.

Colombini, after several years of experience in advising and representing Italian companies operating in the Swiss market, will be supporting us in further expanding our Italian Practice Team. In addition to his prominent litigation work, Marco Colombini excels in advising national and international players in the luxury and retail sectors as well as the industrial sector, with a focus on distribution, logistics and commercial tenancy law. Marco Colombini also provides support for complex infrastructure and industrial plant projects.
