MLL Legal has advised the EIM Group and its owners as lead legal counsel working alongside the independent corporate finance advisory firm Capitalmind to secure growth investment into the EIM Group by Omnes, a major player in private equity and infrastructure with EUR 5bn assets under management. With this partnership with the investment fund Omnes, which is acquiring a minority interest in the group, EIM support its goal of reinforcing its European leadership and accelerating its global expansion.

Founded in 1989, EIM invented the concept of executive interim management and has a complete offer of both business and organizational solutions for transformational situations. EIM's team nurtures a global community of some 35,000 experienced senior executives to deliver solutions covering various business situations such as project management, process improvement, restructuring, performance improvement and business transformation. Recognized globally as a player in the executive interim management world, the company offers its services to a wide range of clients, from SMEs through to multinational corporations as well as private equity funds and private equity-backed companies.

The MLL Legal team was led by partners Nicola Benz (pictured left) and Mark Montanari (pictured right) and further consisted of senior associate Cornelia Mattig, tax partner Marcel R. Jung and junior associate Adrian Eugster.
