

MONTANA AEROSPACE CLOSES ACQUISITION OF THE ASCO GROUP

Posted on 8 April 2022

Categories: Capital Markets, Deal & transactions

Tags: Christian Hagen, Christoph Zaugg, Daniel Dedeyan, Nico Bernhard, Slider, Urs P. Gnos, Walder Wyss

Walder Wyss acted as Swiss counsel and Listing Agent to Montana Aerospace on the closing of the purchase of S.R.I.F. NV (the Asco Group) and the issuance and listing of 4,431,600 shares on 7 April 2022 to the sellers as part of the purchase price. The listing of the new shares has taken place 8 April 2022.

Montana Aerospace, is a highly-vertically integrated manufacturer and supplier of system components and complex assemblies for the aerospace, e-mobility and energy sectors. The SIX Swiss Exchange listed company, has worldwide engineering and manufacturing operations.

The Asco Group is a major supplier and development partner of high-end components and structures for the aerospace industry, operating four production facilities in Belgium, Germany, the United States and Canada.

The team was led by partner Urs P. Gnos (corporate/m&a, pictured) and included managing associate Christian Hagen (corporate/m&a), counsel Daniel Dedeyan (capital markets), managing associate Nico Bernhard (corporate/m&a) and senior associate Christoph Zaugg (corporate/m&a).