As of January 2021, Philippe Wenker (pictured) moves from Blum & Grob to become partner at gbf. He specialises in aviation & transport as well as asset finance.

At gbf, his main focus lies on transactional work and financing matters where he advised domestic and foreign banks and other financiers in many multinational asset financing transactions (such as aircraft, yachts and art) with relevance to all major jurisdictions.

Prior to joining gbf Attorneys-at-law, he worked for a Zurich District Court and various Zurich based business law firms and was a longstanding partner at Blum&Grob Attorneys at Law where he was co-heading of the aviation & transport and asset finance team.
