Quaestor Coach, an independent private equity group specialising in a buy-and-build in discretionary wealth management, has entered the Swiss market and has acquired Diem Client Partner, a Zurich-based independent wealth management boutique for high-net-worth individuals and institutional investors. The transaction was completed after obtaining the necessary FINMA approval by the end of December 2021.

Bär & Karrer acted as legal advisor to Quaestor Coach in this transaction. The team included Urs Kägi (pictured), Linus Zweifel and Stefanie Walch (all m&a/corporate), Peter Hsu and Tiffany Ender (both banking/regulatory), Laura Rubeli (employment), Mani Reinert and Tobias Rebmann (both competition) as well as Kilian Müller (real estate).
