RAOUL STOCKER JOINS BÄR & KARRER AS NEW PARTNER

Posted on 15 June 2020

Category: News
Tags: Bär & Karrer, News, Raoul Stocker

Raoul Stocker has rejoined Bär & Karrer as partner of 1 June 2020 in the tax practice. He was already a partner at Bär & Karrer from 2011 to 2015.

Raoul has 10 years of experience as partner in tax law and is an honorary professor of tax law at the University of St. Gallen and director of the Institute of Finance and Fiscal Law.

Daniel Hochstrasser, senior partner, comments: «We are delighted to welcome Raoul back into the partnership. He will support our tax team in corporate tax law, dispute resolution in national and international tax law, as well as transfer pricing. His legal expertise and know-how will help us continue to grow our offering for our clients».