

ROMAN HUBER ELECTED CO-CHAIR OF THE SWISS ECS

Posted on 26 September 2022

Category: Appointments

Tags: ECS, Kellerhals Carrard, roman huber, Slider

Kellerhals Carrard has informed that Roman Huber has recently been elected as co-chair of the Swiss Ethics and Compliance Working Group (ECS).

The Investigations Working Group is open to members of the ECS, as well as other interested parties, such as ethics and compliance officers, investigation specialists, private investigation lawyers, regulators, prosecutors, forensic accountants, consultants, risk managers, auditors, eDiscovery advisors, etc. Ethics and Compliance Switzerland (ECS) is a unique cross, industry and notprofit organization in Switzerland. Since its foundation, it has played an important role in promoting the developments of ethics and compliance across all sectors and organisations.