

SHELLENBERG WITTMER ADVISED SWISS4.0 WITH FINMA

Posted on 13 December 2022

Category: Banking & Finance

Tags: Arthur Magnin, Caroline Clemetson, dx1, Jean-Frederic Maraia, Joane Etienne, Schellenberg Wittmer, Swiss4.0

Schellenberg Wittmer has advised Swiss Start-up Swiss4.0 in obtaining its Fintech license with the Swiss Financial Market Supervisory Authority (FINMA).

Swiss4 is a state-of-the-art banking services application that brings the experience of private banking to the digital space. Through an exclusive community, clients can discover a new generation of Swiss financial services. The company is the first Geneva-based Fintech company to obtain a Fintech license with FINMA.

Schellenberg Wittmer has advised Swiss4.0 with a team led by partner Caroline Clemetson (banking & finance) and included counsel Joane Etienne (banking & finance) as well as partner Jean-Frédéric Maraia and associate Arthur Magnin (both taxation).