Solstis has joined the BKW Group following its acquisition by BKW Building Solutions, a BKW Group company. This acquisition is part of the Group's growth strategy.

BKW Building Solutions is a regionally based network of companies that brings together experienced specialists and is active throughout Switzerland in the areas of planning, implementation and maintenance in the fields of electricity, renovation, heating, ventilation, air conditioning, refrigeration, plumbing, solar, building automation and information and communication technology (ICT).

From the other side, Solstis, a Lausanne-based SME, is a leader in the design and installation of photovoltaic installations in French-speaking Switzerland with more than 27 years of experience.
