

THREE NEW COUNSELS ARRIVE AT PRAGER DREIFUSS

Posted on 26 January 2021

Category: News

Tags: Andrea Stäubli, Ex-Featured, Lukas Scherer, Mark Meili

Prager Dreifuss announced that Mark Meili, Andrea Stäubli and Lukas Scherer have been appointed as Counsels as of 1 January 2021.

Mark Meili (pictured left) advises companies in company and contract law matters, focusing mainly on corporate finance and bankruptcy proceedings. From 2017 to 2018, Mark Meili was seconded to an alternative investment fund in London which specialized in distressed debt.

Andrea Stäubli (pictured centered) is a member of the Dispute Resolution and Insurance & Reinsurance Teams. She advises and represents Swiss and foreign clients in litigation and enforcement proceedings and works on Swiss and international insurance cases. Andrea Stäubli wrote her award-winning doctoral thesis on insurance law and also authors publications on this topic.

Lukas Scherer (pictured right) is a member of the Tax Team and of the Startup Desk. He supports Swiss and international corporate and private clients on all aspects of tax law, focusing on public and private M&A, corporate finance, succession planning and blockchain/distributed ledger technology. He also advises clients in contentious and non-contentious tax proceedings and on VAT. Before joining Prager Dreifuss, Lukas Scherer worked for several large commercial law firms and a Big Four auditing company in Zurich.