

UBS SWITZERLAND, CREDIT SUISSE AND ZÜRCHER KANTONALBANK ARRANGE REFINANCING OF ARBONIA. ALL THE ADVISOR

Posted on 17 November 2020

Category: Banking & Finance

Tags: Adrian Koller, Alexander Fischer, Andrea Bolliger, Baker McKenzie, Ex-Featured, Jan M. Roethlisberger, Niederer Kraft Frey, Philip Spoerlé, Reto Seiler, Selim Lötscher, Till Spillmann

Arbonia is a SIX Swiss Exchange listed construction component supplier with offices and distribution companies in more than 70 countries worldwide, a total workforce of 8,300 employees and revenues in excess of CHF 1.4 billion per annum.

Baker McKenzie Zurich has advised Arbonia in connection with the refinancing of its existing CHF 350 million revolving credit facility with a new Swiss law-governed revolving credit facility in an amount of CHF 250 million.

Niederer Kraft Frey advised UBS Switzerland, acting as coordinator and arranger, and Credit Suisse (Switzerland) and Zürcher Kantonalbank, acting as arrangers, on the refinancing of Arbonia.

The teams

The Baker McKenzie team was led by Alexander Fischer (Partner, Transactions - pictured left) and Philip Spoerlé (Senior Associate, Banking and Finance) and further comprised Andrea Bolliger (Counsel, Tax) and Jan M. Roethlisberger (Associate, Banking and Finance).

The NKF team was led by partner Till Spillmann (pictured), working with senior associate Adrian Koller and junior associates Selim Lötscher and Reto Seiler (all Finance).