Wenger Vieli strengthens its team with four new promotions: Jonas Bühlmann (senior associate to counsel, pictured left), Meltem Steudler (associate to senior associate, pictured centre), Sabine Taxer (associate to senior associate, pictured centre-right) and Alessa Waibel (associate to senior associate, pictured right).

Jonas Bühlmann joined Wenger Vieli in 2021 as a certified tax expert and advises in particular corporate clients in all tax matters. He specializes in corporate acquisitions, reorganizations, structuring, and real estate matters. This also includes restructurings, advising on employee participations as well as tax aspects on the shareholders level. Previously, he worked for several years as a tax advisor for a Big4 company, where he also started his professional career in the audit department.

joined Wenger Vieli in 2020. Her practice focuses on litigation and banking and financial services. She specializes in private law disputes between financial service providers and their clients and represents financial service providers in both civil and criminal proceedings. Before working as a lawyer, she was a research assistant at the University of Zurich. She has written a doctoral thesis on a subject of private banking law and regularly publishes and lectures in this field.

Meltem Steudler joined the firm in 2020. Her practice focuses on litigation and banking and financial services. She specializes in private law disputes between financial service providers and their clients and represents financial service providers in both civil and criminal proceedings.
